- Birthday celebrations
- Age ratings on Apps and discussions on online safety
- Timelines and chronology

- Charity events e.g. Children in Need
- Discussions in PE on how to adapt activities to be inclusive to those with disabilities. – Paralympics and Invictus games
- PSHE- Celebrating Differences

- Discussions when introducing and using pronouns

MORLEY
PRIMARY SCHOOL

- PSHE Unit – Difference and Diversity - Racism
- Anti-bullying week
- Black History month
- Diversity books in classroom
- RE unit- 'What can be done to reduce racism?' taught September – class create anti-racism charter

How and where do we embed the protected characteristics in Class Two?

- PSHE Unit – Relationships
- RE – Workshops on weddings from different religions at Open Centre
- Celebrating marriages throughout the in assemblies

- Same sex couples having babies/ getting married
- Stories around different families
- Jigsaw scheme representing LGBTQ+ families in images

- PSHE – Changing Me – growth of a baby in the womb
- Science – Life cycles of animals (comparison with humans)
- PSHE discussions around family dynamics and responsibilities at home, particularly around times of transition/change.

- RE – Range of religions taught in spiral curriculum
- Festivals and celebrations
- Visits to church, Open Centre
- Vicar assemblies
- Historical religious beliefs taught (stone age paganism, catholic/protestant during Tudors)

- British Values Day- difference and diversity
- PSHE topics- Growing up, changes and being me
- Books purposefully bought for class which challenge stereotypical views

